FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SELECTED STUDENT MARSHALS AT COMMENCEMENT

CHARLESTON, IL--Two local students served as student marshals at Eastern Illinois University's recent spring commencement ceremony. They include Robert Glenn, husband of Mary L. Glenn of Decatur and son of Ada H. Glenn of Dahlgren; and Tami Ray, daughter of Gene and Nancy Ray, also of Decatur.

Marshals are chosen by the deans of the respective colleges and the director of the Honors Programs. They serve as the official ushers for the various college occasions, particularly for the commencement exercises. They wear white academic costumes and carry batons decorated in the university's colors, blue and gray.

Glenn represented the School of Adult and Continuing Education as a student marshal. A 1958 graduate of Dahlgren Community High School, he was a senior enrolled in the Board of Governors Bachelor of Arts degree program during the spring semester.

Ray represented the College of Health, Physical Education and Recreation as a student marshal. A 1989 graduate of Warrensburg-Latham High School, she was a senior majoring in
